

Councillor Paddy Bradley

Wolverhampton City Council

Councillor Patricia “Paddy” Bradley is Cabinet member for regeneration and enterprise at Wolverhampton City Council.

Born in Bilston, Paddy entered local politics in the late 1960's and was elected to Wolverhampton Council for Penn ward in 1973. Paddy has held the seat ever since.

Paddy held a number of key posts during the 1980's and 1990's as spokeswoman for the Conservative Group on issues such as Animal Welfare, Social Services and Education. She served as Chairman of the Social Services Committee of the Council in 1987-1988 and Chairman of the Education Committee in 1992-1994.

Paddy became Deputy Leader of the Conservative Group and spokeswoman for Finance in 1995. She is also involved with the Local Neighbourhood Partnership in her own ward.
